President's Letter

The AEA 2014 - 60th Anniversary Fall Conference was both inspirational and enlightening. The weekend began with a Friday evening Meet & Greet at The Mansion Restaurant. We dined outdoors by the Indian River as the sun set and our meals were delicious! It was a wonderful time of food and fellowship together with our brethren.

The Saturday Conference was held at Community Gospel Truth Church in Melbourne, Florida and it was a full day of excellent learning. We started our day with CGTC's Praise and Worship Team, and a dance by Pastor Judy Farmer and Therese Farmer. Our morning featured a workshop Panel Discussion about Marketplace Ministries, where we had the privilege of joining fellow attending ministers to discuss the importance of taking the Gospel into the marketplace.

Dr. Charles E. Farmer, Bishop of Refuge of Hope Disciple Center, gave a passionate teaching on "Conquering the Giants in Your Land". Following our lunch break, we were honored to have Rev. Yuha Ketola, the International Director of the International Christian Embassy in Jerusalem, Israel, address the Conference. He spoke about "Your Church, Israel and the Nations". The day ended with an excellent teaching by Rabbi Alan Levine, of Kol Mashiach Messianic Synagogue, Melbourne, Florida. He provided an excellent and enlightening Jewish perspective towards "Understand Your Jewish Roots from a Biblical Perspective". The Rabbi's teaching was followed by the synagogues congregational Davidic dancers.

Sunday also featured a great time of Worship at our AEA host Church, Community Gospel Truth Church. Following the morning service, an amazing and wonderful lunch was served. We who attended were absolutely Blessed!

We are excited about all that God has coming up for us this year. It's time to pray for our Nation and we'll be doing that in Washington, DC at our Annual Spring Conference meeting! See you there April 24-26, 2015. Please read all about our plans in this issue of Spotlight and make your plans now to join us!

God Bless you!

My Special Angel

By Rev. Jo Ann Strubhar, Marion, Iowa

February 13, 2015

Sometimes I have felt that this has been a long, cold, messy winter. The other day in February, my husband Larry and I were out running errands. Then we went to a buffet for a 2:00 p.m. lunch. Retired seniors eat at almost any time!!!

Since the parking lots were not cleaned off very well, Larry was driving our four-wheel drive pickup. When we arrived at the buffet, Larry pulled up real close to the raised sidewalk so I could "easily" get out onto the sidewalk. He did not realize that I would be getting out onto ice. I have hip and knee problems, so some things are difficult for me---even on dry land!! As I was attempting to get out of the pickup, I fell back into it. I decided that I was going to make it on my second try. As I turned to try again, there was a tall, slender young man standing there. He appeared to be about twenty-five years old. In a quiet and a peaceful voice, he said, "May I help you?" As he held out his hand, I reached out to him in total trust for this total stranger. We grasped each other's right wrists and I came out of the pickup. I felt as light as a feather and I am not as light as a feather. He stood me up on the ice and I didn't even slip as he guided me safely off of the ice. Then he turned and went into the buffet.

I went on into the buffet waiting area with windows, to wait for Larry to park our pickup. The young man went to the counter and paid for his meal and went to get his table. I started to visit with the lady employee at the counter. She said, "I saw you fall back into your pickup and he helped you out." Since it was around 2:00p.m., she was not very busy and therefore witnessed this neat, clean appearing young man help me. That should not have been such a strange thing, but so many people don't display such kindness.

Larry and I have our favorite table at that buffet. We got "our" table and our food.

A very few people were there at that time and many tables were available. BUT guess who was sitting at the table next to our favorite table!!! Sitting there was a young man with a coat that looked like "my" stranger's coat (hanging neatly on a chair beside him). He was reading a very white book and hardly looked up---even to take another bite of his food.

After a while he got up to go get some more food. I said to him, "Are you the one who helped me out of our pickup?" He came down to my level and said, "Yes, I am." Larry and I both thanked him. With no chit-chat of any kind, he said, "You remind me of my mama and I loved helping my mama, but she's gone now, so I will give my to you." He gently patted me on the shoulder. Then he turned and went on to the buffet to get more food. I had a hard time holding back the tears.

When we left to go home, he was still sitting there reading his very white book. I believe he was an angel sent from God to minister to my needs, but if not-I don't know if he lives around here or not---but to me---he was my special angel. I thought that I had witnessed a gift of God's love that I needed. I was blessed beyond measure by my special angel.
